Jail, review, union, funding issues face County Board

Madison County Board members at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday will consider the possibility of ordering the 1870-vintage former county jail demolished.

The lowest of nine raising bids opened last week, $31,722, was submitted by Kamadulski Excavating Co. of Granite City. The firm would remove all debris and fill in the site with dirt.

The meeting agenda includes a resolution for demolition of the old jail building. Five persons seeking to preserve part of the structure displayed a scroll with 1,300 signatures there June 10.

Also on the agenda of the 29-member board Wednesday are a resolution to authorize purchase of radio equipment for the new Madison County jail, and a resolution permitting the county to enter into a contract to place federal prisoners in the new jail.

Housing federal prisoners in the facility would provide revenue for the county, perhaps as much as $100,000 a year.

Before such prisoners can be accommodated, repairs will need to be completed on air-conditioning equipment damaged by the April 3 tornado, and bunks must be installed in 48 cells.

The prisoners to be housed in Edwardsville are those who are to appear in the federal court at Alton.

County Auditor Arthur "Pete" Fields has said a $95,000 insurance settlement is expected on tornado damage to the county's environmental building. He is suggesting that it be used to ease a jail financial squeeze resulting from a longer-than-expected delay in housing the federal inmates.

Agenda items also include a call for bids related to a jail exercise yard.

It is uncertain whether an appointive position on the three-member Board of Review will be filled at Wednesday's session.

State's Attorney Donald Weber has suggested that four be named to the property assessment review panel, by expanding it from three to six members on an emergency basis. He cites delays in completing valuation hearings, slowing the collection and distribution of taxes to schools, cities and other agencies.

The vacant position is that of Terry Francis, Glen Carbon lawyer and real

Bills remain unpaid; GC garbage pickups may be discontinued on Friday

By GARY SCHEIDER
of the Press-Record

Predictions last year by the Granite City Council's finance committee that the city would run out of money before this summer's tax collections appear to be coming true and the city's garbage collection may be the first service to be terminated for failure to pay the bill.

Friday, SCA Services, Inc., which supplies garbage pickup to the city and city residents through its Milham East Division, notified Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the city council's finance committee, that garbage collection in the city will end after 5 p.m. Thursday unless the city immediately pays $80,034 in past-due monthly payments.

The bills represent payments for April and May, which were due the 1st of each month. The city has a contract with SCA Services signed July 1, 1977, which calls for payments the 30th of each month and designates the amount of each payment.

It has provided five percent increases per year and for the calendar year which ends this July 1, the contract stipulates that monthly payments in the amount of $40,017 be made.

Bowler asked the company to send letters to the mayor, city clerk, city treasurer and members of the council's finance and sanitation committees detailing the contract violation and threat to discontinue service. Letters were prepared by Fred E. Arnold of the Thompson and Mitchell law firm of St. Louis, attorney for SCA Services, and were expected to be received today by the officials.

Bowler said this morning that failure to pay SCA's bills may be only "the tip of the iceberg" of the city's financial difficulties. "I hear rumors we are a half-million dollars to $600,000 over. No one knows how much. The auditor (certified public accountant) is in right now checking the books," Bowler said. "The finance committee is not being told, but I hear there are many bills which are not being paid. I would say we're out of money," he added.

Bowler said a similar crisis occurred in April when SCA Services noted the city was $120,051 behind for three months of service and threatened to discontinue garbage pickups. The threat was not made public at that time and the city treasurer was able to pay the bill and avert discontinuation of service.

"There is no reason for this. We have budgeted for garbage collection, it is in the budget and there is a separate tax levy to support it. It's not like an unexpected bill. It's the same each month and they (city clerk and treasurer) know exactly how much each year to put in and it should be there," he contended.

'Moat' home value cut

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record
(Fifth in a series)

Among the Madison County properties coming under scrutiny of the Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement has been a large residence in the Collinsville area.

Once owned by the late gangster boss Frank "Buster" Wortman, who had the home surrounded by a water-filled moat, it later was purchased by Fred J. "Bo" Beuckman Jr.

For the 1974 and 1975 tax years, the assessment was $32,000.

For 1976, this figure was reduced to $22,000 by a certificate of error issued by the Madison County Board of Review. For 1977, a proposed assessment of $28,650 was cut to $22,000 by another certificate of error.

Property taxes paid for the four years, 1974-77, were $1,311, $1,317, $882 and $869, in that order.

Beuckman told the DCI July 17, 1979, that he "purchased the property, which consists of a seven-bedroom brick home and 2.7 acres, in 1971 for around $75,000 to $80,000."

"Beuckman was asked by the reporting agent about his assessments for the tax years 1976 and 1977 and stated that his attorney, John Gitchoff, takes care of his taxes."

"Asked if he thought the reduction on the certificates to $22,000 was low, he stated 'no' because he does not have any city water or sewer, no police or fire protection, and the county does not take care of the roads in his area."

"He has to plow the snow on the county roads leading away from his home. Beuckman advised that his property at Route One, Collinsville, is for sale at this time for over $200,000."

"Beuckman stated he has not contacted, either in person or by phone, the Madison County tax assessment office."

In addition to the seven bedrooms, there are a living room, dining room, den, kitchen and eight bathrooms.

A building record in the property file says it was constructed in 1958 and at one time had a $142,240 replacement value, reduced by depreciation to a true value of $130,360.

Including a garage and other buildings, total value of $133,900 was noted, indicating a possible assessment value (one-third) amounting to $47,970.

Madison County State's Attorney Donald Weber alleged May 27, 1981, that Supervisor of Assessments James Barton was the one who reduced the Beuckman assessment to $22,000 and commented, "That means he's saying the value of the home is $66,000."

"At the same time," Weber continued, "the house was for sale on the market at $200,000. I'd like to know why Barton thinks he can set himself up as the taxation god in this county."

Barton said on May 28, in response to

Intensity of services, pay hikes boost hospital costs

Total expenditures of hospitals in this metropolitan area increased 18.5 percent in the first quarter of 1981 over the same period last year, according to an analysis made by the Hospital Association of Metropolitan St. Louis.

This increase is attributed to four main items—salaries, fringe benefits, availability of services, and depreciation.

Salary and fringe benefit dollars increased 20.2 percent and 24.9 percent, respectively.

Inflationary pressures and recent increases in nursing and other technical employee wage rates combined with an increase in Social Security contributions and minimum wages to drive expenses upward.

More intensive hospital service has meant cost-per-case increases of over 20 percent and a rise of more than four percent in the number of full-time equivalent personnel.

These increases are compounded by a decrease in utilization and the fact that patients, on the average, are leaving the hospital more quickly, a spokesman said. He added: "Increased intensity of services, new services, technology and shifting community demand have challenged hospitals to renovate, modernize and expand facilities."

"These factors have caused a depreciation increase of more than 17 percent and, as mentioned, an increase in per capita charges."

"An example of the rise in intensity of services, cited in the American Hospital Association publication, Hospital Statistics, 1980 edition, is an almost 48 percent growth in the number of intensive care beds in Missouri in the last nine years."

"Cost areas that show the least increases included: interest expense, up five and a half percent; utilities, up more than nine percent; and food, up more than 10 percent. Professional liability insurance continued to decline, largely the result of the shared professional liability insurance."

"Hospitals are continuing their commitment to voluntary cost containment efforts while maintaining high quality care."

Retirees hear reports on state, federal legislation

The National Association for Retired Federal Employees, Granite City Chapter 1067, met last week at Charlie's Restaurant for their regular luncheon meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer and all members participated in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Georgina McMillan, service officer, reported that material was received from Washington, D.C. with emphasis on the retirement and survivor programs. The communication report was given by Frances Hoppe.

Harry McClintock gave the legislative report, and spoke on the present CFI and Federal Health Benefits. Mayme Vallow gave the Sunshine Committee report. Dorothy Sheppard, program chairman, announced that plans were made to attend the Good Times Dinner Theater, Fairview Heights, as a group on Wednesday, Aug. 12. The attraction will be "How the Other Half Loves."

President Larry Hengehold recognized those members having birthdays in June, July and August since meetings will not be held during the summer months. Hengehold appointed Helen Todoroff as public relations representative for the chapter and said her name would be submitted to national headquarters.

A guest attending was Marilyn Zeller. The special prize was won by Joan Stanton and there were 63 in attendance.

Thomas Holloway, vice president, commercial loans, First Granite City National Bank, was the guest speaker and spoke on Federal Deposit Insurance, direct deposit, certificates of deposit and safe deposit boxes.

The next regular luncheon meeting will be held at 11:30 a.m. at Charlie's Restaurant on September 14.

Illinois in consortium to help gifted children

Illinois has been selected as one of six states to participate in the National Consortium for State Leadership in the Education of Gifted and Talented Children, State Superintendent of Education Donald Gill has announced. During the next three years, the National Consortium will assist in providing information on issues and practices in gifted and talented education to state government and education officials. The consortium will aid Illinois' statewide efforts to broaden awareness of educational opportunities for gifted and talented students.

Illinois, along with Maine, Michigan, South Carolina, Tennessee and Utah, was chosen to receive comprehensive technical assistance during the consortium's first year.

The project goals include meeting with key decision makers in each state with the objective of considering a range of state policy and program options.

The consortium membership includes seven national organizations representing state legislatures, state boards of education, chief state school officers, local boards of education, parents and educators.

The project director will be in Illinois in July to meet with Dr. Gill, members of the State Board Staff, legislators and other persons involved in the education process.

Mass communications department accredited

The department of mass communications at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education for Journalism and Mass Communications.

According to John Regnel, chairman of the department, the department has received accreditation for its news-editorial major (journalism) and recreation for its radio-television major.

In evaluating the University's mass communications program, members of the visiting team reported the program to be basically sound, "offering a surprising variety of courses considering the size of the school, faculty and budget limitations."

The report also stated that the program has "a good faculty which remains enthusiastic and committed in the face of a discouraging budget situation"; and the department has "excellent equipment and facilities in television and radio and in the journalism self-contained type setters."

The department of mass communications was established in 1969 with radio-television coursework. The journalism major was introduced during the 1970-71 academic year. The mass communications program maintains an average of 80 journalism majors, while the radio-television major has approximately 200 students.

GC man testifies on murder, arson

Earl Abney of Granite City testified last week in the trial of a former Alton schoolteacher charged with the murder of a woman.

Lippert testified that arson was definitely the cause of the fire. He said about two gallons of a flammable liquid had been poured throughout the home, including the bedroom and even beneath the bed where firemen found Mrs. Lippert.

"There is no logical explanation for why under that bed (except arson)," Buxton said. He ruled out the furnace and the electrical systems as possible causes of the fire.

Buxton said whoever lit the blaze was outside the home near a door. Otherwise, the person never would have been able to escape. "There is no place you could go within that building once the fire ignited and be in a safe position," he testified.

In a tape recording of a police interview made shortly after the fire, Lippert said he was inside the home and awoke to find it on fire.

He said he heard glass breaking, went downstairs, saw the fire and returned to the bedroom to get his wife, but failed to find her.

Lippert said he looked for her in a bathroom and then the garage. He added that the fire blocked him from re-entering the home, so he grabbed a ladder and tried to save his wife from a window.

In his recorded statements, he said, "I'm convinced it was an arson job. The house was only 10 or 12 years old."

The recording was made Oct. 28 during a psychological stress evaluation conducted by Tony Eck of the Granite City police detective staff.

ILLINOIS COAL SOLD TO SPANISH COMPANY. Sen. Charles H. Percy and Illinois Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal have announced that final agreement has been reached on what is thought to be the first-ever contract sale of Illinois coal to a European buyer.

The contract involves sale of 125,000 tons of Illinois coal from the Freeman United Orient 3 mine at Waltonville to Aprocar, the purchasing agency representing the Spanish cement industry.

The coal will be carried to the Port of New Orleans by the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad with the first trainloads leaving Illinois June 12.

News notes

Four checks totaling $23 million in state sales taxes, collected in the six-county Chicago area, were transported Friday to the Regional Transportation Authority. Gov. James R. Thompson authorized release of the tax receipts in accord with an accelerated distribution schedule, devised to help keep mass transit operating. He cited a federal court order Friday that the RTA continue Milwaukee Road commuter train service, and also urged continuation of some suburban bus lines at least through the end of June. The legislature is discussing ways of adding to RTA revenue.

Business and legislative leaders will meet in Springfield tomorrow and Wednesday, to discuss revision of unemployment insurance. Illinois now owes the federal government $1.4 billion for such insurance and the total could top $2 billion by next March unless changes are made, Gov. Thompson says.

The Granite City Board of Realtors will discuss city occupancy permits at a monthly luncheon at noon Wednesday at Charlie's.

U. S. Steel Corp. is being urged to comply with dam gate and bay bid specifications for the next phase of the Alton lock and dam replacement project. The firm is uncertain whether it can meet requirements for steel piling, and as a result, purchases exceeding $100 million from foreign steelmakers are being considered.

Corporations operating on a calendar year basis and having an expected federal tax liability of at least $40 for 1981 are to pay estimated taxes by tonight. Also due tonight is the second installment of the federal tax on individual income.

GC WOMAN HURT IN CYCLE CRASH. SUNDAY Janet S. Ballard, 27, of 4603 Kirkpatrick Homes was hurt severely at 8:30 a.m. Sunday when she lost control of a motorcycle on a store parking lot.

The motorcycle was riding the north door at the front entrance of the Schnucks supermarket near Namekiki Road. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and then transferred to Firm Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

Love praises new tax plan

Howard M. Love, chairman and president of National Steel Corp., on last week added his endorsement of President Reagan's tax package to that of the Business Roundtable and other business associations.

"H.R. 3849, introduced by Representatives Conable and Hanes, is a good compromise that will accelerate modernization of American business, improve its productivity, and enhance the competitiveness of American business in international markets," Love said.

"This is an excellent first step in President Reagan's promised two-step legislative tax program, and should be enacted by Congress at the earliest possible date."

He added that "this proposal, coupled with substantial regulatory reform and vigorous enforcement of the fair trade laws, is precisely what the steel industry needs to reinforce its leadership in international and domestic steel markets."

"The administration displays a refreshing desire to correct these problems, and National Steel will cooperate in every way possible to make the president's economic and regulatory reform program a success."

BUSING RULING

The Supreme Court ruled on April 20, 1971 that busing could be used to achieve integrated education.

Farm work covered by social security

The earnings of most people working on farms in this area are covered by Social Security if one of two tests is met, Oliver Holmes, Social Security district manager in East St. Louis, says.

All wages paid are covered by Social Security if the worker:

Is paid $150 or more in cash wages during the calendar year for agricultural labor, or Performs agricultural labor for an employer 20 or more days during the year for cash wages figured on a time basis—by the hour, day, week, or month.

If either of these tests are met, all of the worker's cash wages are covered and social security taxes must be withheld from the worker's pay.

If the worker is part of a crew, it is important to know who is the employer for social security purposes, Holmes said. Generally, if the crew leader pays the workers, he or she is the employer and is responsible for making social security reports and deducting taxes.

The employer must keep a record for each worker, showing name, social security number, amount of wages paid, and amount of taxes withheld. In addition, the employer is responsible for reporting the wages and sending the taxes collected to the Internal Revenue Service and for preparing a Form W-2 (Wage and Tax Statement) for each employee.

For information about social security numbers or benefits, Quad-Cityans may get in touch with the East St. Louis Social Security office, located at 650 Missouri Ave.

The telephone number is 274-4100 or toll free Enterprise 1-535. For information about social security taxes, contact the nearest IRS office.

OPEN WIDE. Christy DeLuca, 2½, of Collinsville, lets Bruce Rotter of Granite City, a senior at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Dental Medicine, take a look inside during a dental screening at SIUE's Early Childhood Center. The students learn to use a little magic and a light touch to take the fear out of seeing the dentist for children.

Bruce Rotter helping with a bit of dental magic

"They don't know he is a dentist until he asks them to 'open wide.' They think he is a magician."

That's what Dr. Joseph Sim, chairman of pediatric dentistry and orthodontics at the SIUE School of Dental Medicine, wants all the children he visits to think. It's his way of opening the door to dentistry but keeping the scare out.

"Now, I'm going to show you how a tooth grows in your mouth," he says, holding out his fist to an audience of preschoolers on the grassy hillside at SIUE's Early Childhood Center.

With a quick move perfected by years of experience, Dr. Sim makes it appear, "It goes pop," he says. All 20 pairs of eyes follow the tooth as it grows longer and longer out of the fist.

"Hey, that IS magic," 5-year-old Zachary Ellerbrook confirms.

"See, it was that big all the time," Dr. Sim continues as he holds up the foot-long sample of an incisor. "You don't have teeth this big, just a rhinoceros. But yours are there all the time, too."

"That's why we shine a light and take a picture in your mouth. Then we can see the whole tooth," he explains.

Before he finished, Dr. Sim finds out he has to brush the teeth in his mouth, not on his feet; use the bristle end of the brush, not the handle; and work until he gets results that are bright and shiny, not half-clean.

"Oh, I've been doing it wrong," he admits to the delight of the children.

The business of screening each child individually waits as Dr. Sim carefully takes a toothbrush out of a sample kit each child will get to take home. He stops to listen.

"Now, when you take your toothbrush out," he instructs, "sometimes it cries."

The gush of laughter from the doubters is all the encouragement the white-haired magician needs to go on.

"It sheds tears because it doesn't want to be brushed," he assures them. "Now, you let me know if you see any crying toothbrushes."

As a last step, he asks the group to get ready by trying to open their mouths as wide as they can. "Look at that," he says with certain pride.

"Like a bunch of alligators." The dentist and his fourth-year student, Bruce Rotter of Granite City, carry the show inside where Dr. Sim does a disappearing act with a happy face on the tongue depressor before he gets to the teeth.

"I want each child to have this experience," he says. "Like adults, they are only frightened of what they don't know or haven't experienced before."

Dr. Sim also visits children in the classroom to show budding teachers that dentists can do this very well. "Some teachers have a fear themselves and pass that on to their students. We need to avoid that, too," he insists.

With a parent standing by, Dr. Sim finally talks and jokes his way into a look inside each preschooler's mouth to find out if the child needs further care or just more brushing.

"You need to start saving your quarters in a jar now," he frankly tells one mother. She shakes her head in agreement, admitting she had the same bite problems when she was a child.

Others get a "fantastic" or "beautiful" rating and an offer to "put a picture of those teeth in a book someday." They all get a big hug.

The last step is a brushing lesson with Rotter, who hands out the kit with a tube of toothpaste and an alligator-handled toothbrush inside. More than one convert stops to listen for a cry.

Mount Nebo
Bible school

Gray, formerly of GC, secretary of Ill. Power

Two Illinois Power Company vice-presidents of the firm have assumed additional responsibilities. The board of directors elected Vice-President Arthur E. Gray as secretary and Vice-President Larry D. Haab as treasurer.

These elections were made as a result of the retirement of Secretary-Treasurer David F. Meek. He retired June 1 after almost 44 years with the company.

Gray, a native of Collinsville, has been with the company since 1952. His positions have included commercial office supervisor in Granite City and Decatur, and assistant chief commercial office supervisor and chief commercial office supervisor in the company headquarters.

In 1967, he was named manager of insurance and pensions. The next year he was appointed assistant secretary.

He was named assistant secretary and manager of accounting in 1971. The Awards for

in teaching

Recipients of the annual teaching excellence awards at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were announced last week by Earl Lazerson, president. David F. Schwartz, associate professor of government, public affairs, and Wayne D. Santoni, associate professor of historical studies, will receive the senior teaching excellence award.

Dennis D. Staley, lecturer in the university's Academic Resource Center, will receive the junior teaching excellence award.

With the selections go a cash award of $1,000 for each category and a plaque for each recipient.

The winners are first nominated by students enrolled at the university and then selected by a panel of 14 people made up of seven students and seven faculty members.

Santoni has been recognized by the students, alumni and faculty for his teaching ability on at least two other occasions. Joining the SIUE faculty in 1968, he received the Great Teacher Award in 1970 and the junior teaching excellence award in 1974.

Santoni has served on named university committees and panels. He is currently conducting research on a volume of essays, "Historia Rossii 5 Dvevshikh Vremen."

Schwartz's honors and awards include nominations for the teaching excellence award in 1978 and 1979, a summer research fellowship from the Graduate School in 1978, and an outstanding performance award in 1979.

He is the author of several articles published in professional magazines and has served on many committees and panels since joining the government and public affairs faculty in 1975.

Staley's accomplishments include restructuring a chemistry course for under-prepared learners in 1978-79. He joined the faculty in 1974.

directors appointed him controller and assistant secretary in 1973 and he was elected a vice-president in 1979.

Haab, a certified public accountant, has been with Ill. Power since 1965. He began as administrative accountant and research assistant in the rate department.

In 1968, he became supervisor of systems and data processing development and later that year was named administrator of systems and data processing. He was appointed manager of data processing in 1971 and, in 1972, manager of rates. He was elected a vice-president in 1976.

The board also has named John B. Burdick as assistant secretary, and Larry P. Altenbaumer as assistant treasurer.

estate broker. Weber wants him replaced, but backers of Francis say he should not be made a scapegoat for property owners' complaints about high taxes and controversial assessment revisions.

Not on the agenda but looming large in board members' thoughts is tomorrow's election in which county governmental employees will decide on union representation.

Ballooning will take place from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday at the County Courthouse. Competing are Teamsters Local 525 and Local 799 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Also worrying the County Board is a citizen move to seek a November 1982 election to reduce by 25 percent the county tax rate limits for the general fund, the mental health fund and the highway fund.

Another topic of concern is redistricting of board member district boundaries. The legislative committee has scheduled a meeting for 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Courthouse to acquaint board members with a tentative new district map and to hear their praise or criticism of the proposal.

A resolution on redistricting is expected to be enacted Wednesday. While no announcement has been made, one plan is said to involve creating new districts in Edwardsville and the Pin Oak, Saline and Marine area.

Action is being sought this month to make all district populations total 8,325 or as close to that as possible.

Also scheduled Wednesday are:

—Policies for compilation of the annual budget.

—An increase in polling place rent to $50.

—Sale of voting machines.

—Action to make federal revenue sharing available for Bank Building Annex I modifications.

—A contract for a space planning

A resolution disagreeing in the redesignation of eastern areas of the county from air purity Class II to Class III.

—Bid calls on corrugated steel culvert pipe, truck and tractor tires, gasoline, diesel fuel, grease and oils.

—An increase in mobile home court license fees to $50 for 15 or less spaces, plus $2 for each space over 15.

—An ordinance regulating use of public and private sewers and drains.

—Amendment of an April 15 ordinance on abatement of special sewer taxes.

—Special sewer rate increases and fund transfers.

—A resolution to allow or disallow claims incurred by the special sewer service area.

—A resolution honoring Terry Schuler.

—And a resolution approving the numbering of county ordinances.

'Moat' home

Weber's criticism, that Beuckman did not sell the home for $200,000.

"He couldn't sell it for $100,000. He couldn't even sell it for $50,000. It was what you might call a white elephant."

The DCI interviewed Collinsville Township Assessor Peter Poletti Jr. on May 21, 1979, regarding a number of property valuations.

The state division said the Beuckman property's certificate for the 1977 tax year, showing a reduction from $28,660 to $22,000, was dated July 24, 1978.

"The property consists of 2.7 acres and a home which was built in 1958 which consists of approximately 4,238 square feet and a 28x36-foot detached garage."

"The home consists of seven bedrooms, one living room, one dining room, one den, one kitchen and eight baths."

"The reason indicated on the certificate of error for the reduction is a mistake in computation."

According to Poletti, the assessed valuation of $28,660 was a low assessment. The property was bought by the Beuckmans in 1973 (Poletti said) for approximately $75,000 to $80,000 and the property is presently (1979) up for sale. The selling price is in excess of $200,000.

An Oct. 31, 1979, DCI interview with Supervisor of Assessments Barton quoted Barton as saying that "Beuckman has a problem with the right-of-way in that he does not own the right-of-way, making it extremely difficult to sell."

"Presently, Beuckman is in the process of correcting this situation."

According to Barton, Beuckman's property is such that it is not the type of property that the normal buyer would purchase.

"It is a special piece of property that would be limited to the buyer, therefore making the assessment difficult to apply."

Barton believes that the assessment of $22,000, which is the assessment reduced by the certificate of error, is in line with the property."

Bills unpaid

Bowler said the city council Tuesday night will face a tough decision. "We either have to borrow through tax anticipation warrants, cut services or raise taxes."

He said that if the city borrows, the interest it will have to pay will have to come out of the next budget and the next budget, which is being prepared, is strained now.

"Look at East St. Louis. How many times can you borrow? I don't know why they (the city administration) think we are any different than any other governmental entity that has had to cut back," Bowler commented.

A deputy city treasurer would say only, "It will be taken care of. There was a mixup in the bills. We have it all straightened out. Mr. Petrillo (Nick Petrillo, city treasurer) has been ill and the auditors have been in. There has been a mixup. They will get their money."

David Nolan, administrative aide to Mayor Paul Schuler, also predicted, "If there is one (a problem), I am sure it will be taken care of."

Asked if failure to live up to the contract could nullify the agreement and force the city to seek bids or renegotiate on a new, probably higher, contract, Nolan commented, "You'd have to ask the attorney."

The city has been forcing SCA to live to the letter of the contract, which limits annual increases to five percent. The 1977 contract was renewed in 1980, over objections by SCA, and now expires July 1, 1983.

Bids opened in 1980 indicated that a new contract would be far more expensive than the current document, with its limited annual raises.

Since SCA failed to give a 60-day notice for renegotiating new terms in 1980, the city exercised its option to renew the contract for an additional three years.

Extension of the contract with a five percent increase in each of the three years saved the city $338,077 below the first-year low bid of $798,000 submitted at that time by R.D. Johnson Co. of Godfrey, SCA bid $626,225 for the first year, which would have been the 1980-81.

Nolan said he was unaware of the problem until contacted by a reporter this morning. He pledged to research it and provide information to the city council Tuesday night on the status.

He noted that Mayor Schuler may be aware of the problem, but has not consulted with Nolan on it.

The city council will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the township hall, 2660 Delmar Ave.

Crash closes Interstate 270 for five hours

A truck mishap and collision on Interstate 270 west of Illinois Route 3 closed westbound lanes for more than five hours, from 9:05 p.m. Saturday to 2:40 a.m. Sunday.

Two persons were injured. State police said Franklin Dunakey, 43, Rockport, Mo., was driving a large tractor-trailer alone on I-270 when it left the roadway, crossed the median and overturned across the westbound lanes.

Patsy Hubbard, 37, Roxana, driving west on 270, was unable to avoid the wreckage of the truck and her auto collided with it.

She was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center in satisfactory condition after receiving X-rays and treatment for mouth lacerations.

Dunakey was released following emergency treatment of minor injuries.

The truck driver was charged by troopers with driving while under the influence of alcohol.

MISHAP AT OVERPASS

Contract for Head Start classes at GC pre-school

A contract for Head Start classes in the Granite City Pre-School Center, the former Logan School Annex, was approved by the Board of Education last week.

Pre-school was eliminated by the Granite City school system after the 1980-81 school year due to a cutback in federal funds for the instruction of four-year-old children.

The district hopes to see the Granite City Head Start—also serving four-year-olds—move to the Pre-School Center and perhaps expand its enrollment, aided by the financial saving from no longer having to rent classroom space.

The contract approved by the School Board this week calls for the building to be offered free of charge to Head Start, which has not experienced a reduction in federal funding. Or, the free rent may be revised to a $1 charge to meet legal requirements, the board voted.

Head Start, while also a federally-aided instructional program, has somewhat different procedures and requirements than the Pre-School.

The school district has praised both programs, and hopes to encourage expansion of the one remaining governmental school here

Robbery at liquor store

A young robber who wore a loose-fitting red ski mask and displayed a pistol obtained an undetermined amount of currency at 9:55 p.m. Friday at the J & J Liquor Store, 3112 Maryville Road.

He began striking a cash register drawer, trying to open it, while a woman employee was talking to a carload of youths seeking to make a purchase at the drive-up window.

Ordered to "get this drawer open," she complied. He fled on foot, going east toward an apartment complex.

Police searched the area but could not locate the robber, who was 5-6 to 5-8 in height, of medium build, with dark green eyes.

He had a moustache and full, dark red-brown beard. The man was wearing a green tee shirt and faded blue jeans.

Corral downs National twice

SPECIAL TO THE PRESS-RECORD
GRANITE CITY — For Corral Liquors coach Ken Crawford, Sunday's Inter-City Baseball League doubleheader here was just some of what he's been having all season long — fun.

Corral swept a twinbill from league rival Edwardsville 12-6 and 9-8 to stay on top of the Inter-City League standings with a 6-0 record. To say the Corral Liquors team is loaded with talent could be a severe understatement. The Cowboys are loaded to the gills with talent — both at the plate and in the field.

Mike Robertson, who was a spot starter at third base this past spring for Coach "Ricky" Jones at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale and is a graduate of Granite City North, was a good example. He was the winning pitcher in the second game and cracked a home run in each game.

"I'm pretty satisfied," said Crawford. "The games were a little tougher today than I expected. Especially the second one. Edwardsville came back on us. They've got some talent, too."

But not enough. After taking an 8-3 lead in the second game, Corral was forced the battle back with a run in the bottom of the seventh inning to win it. Edwardsville came up with five runs in the top of the seventh inning.

"We had that lead and let it slip away," said Crawford. "But I guess close games every now and then help to keep a team on its toes."

Close games are something Corral hasn't had very much of this season. In fact, the only other game in which the Cowboys were held under 10 runs this season was two weeks ago in a 9-2 victory over Edwardsville and pitcher Denny Scheibel. It was Scheibel who took the loss in the first game yesterday.

In the second game, Edwardsville actually took a short-lived 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning. But Corral came back. The Cowboys scored four times in the bottom of the third inning and, after Edwardsville scored two more in the fourth, came back with four more of their own in the bottom of the sixth. All looked rosy going into the seventh, but the Nationals' five runs set up the Cowboys' seventh inning heroics.

Crawford had even more fun in the first game of the day. He was the winning pitcher in the Cowboys' romp over the Nationals.

Except for a six-run outburst by Edwardsville in the top of the fifth inning, Corral had things under control.

The Cowboys scored all the runs they needed in the bottom of the second inning. They crossed the plate seven times. They added one more run in the third inning, two in the fourth and two more in the fifth. Robertson cracked a two-run homer in the fifth with teammate Tom Greco on base. Greco was a regular at SIU-Edwardsville this past spring and is a former teammate of Robertson at Granite City North.

"As long as we keep winning, I don't care how many runs a game we score," said Crawford.

"Right now, we're doing a lot of scoring. But as long as we keep winning and having fun, I'm not going to worry about it."

That's one thing about Corral's Cowboys. They're having fun. A lot of it.

Maryville sweeps Collinsville in I-C

MARYVILLE — When the Collinsville Chiefs took the field against the Maryville Red Sox here Sunday for an Inter-City League doubleheader, Manager Jerry Phelps was confident about his pitching staff. As it turned out, the Chiefs pitching, which had haunted them throughout their 1-7 start, wasn't bad. This time, however, Collinsville's bats were silent as the Red Sox swept the doubleheader 5-1 and 4-1.

Maryville brought both pitching and hitting into the afternoon. The Red Sox demonstrated that from the very first inning. They tagged Chief pitcher Terry Box of Troy for five runs in the first inning after setting down Collinsville in order.

The Red Sox had four hits and drew four walks and an error to put together those five runs.

After that, however, Box settled down and gave up no runs and four hits in the next five innings.

"The pitching was better today," said Phelps. "As was evident by the scores. The guys have still got the get up and go (despite their 1-9 record) as far as wanting to play ball. But we just can't get it together."

"Our problem is we're not hitting the ball together," he said.

The Chiefs scattered five hits off Jim Holecek, who

Triplets run back for DH sweep

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor of the Press-Record
ST. LOUIS — Area American Legion baseball team take notice: Don't get Tri-City mad. You'll pay for it.

Tri-City Post 113, after losing the first game 5-4, came back with a vengeance here Sunday to rip Fred Stockham 12-5 in the second game of a non-league doubleheader.

Tri-City manager Eldon Warfield wanted to get a chance to see some of the players who haven't been getting much action. So he started Paul Eads on the mound and used several other players who've seen little playing time this far. He liked what he saw. "I like to give these kids a chance to play," said Warfield. "Because when I put them in a District game, they come up with the hit most of the time. I wasn't displeased."

Expect for the score. Tri-City lost for only the second time this season. The other loss was a one-run decision to Paducah, Ky. in another non-league doubleheader.

But the loss wasn't without its moments. Take the seventh inning, for instance. Fred Stockham had to come up with two runs in the bottom of the inning to take the victory. They got both runs off losing pitcher Rich

Daily.

Daily just ran out of gas in the seventh," said Warfield. "We don't like to lose, but we gave it a good shot. I didn't have a very offensive-minded lineup out there in the first game," Warfield said. "And we still darned near won the game."

Tri-City jumped out on top 2-1 after the first inning. Kevin Sykes walked leading off and stole second. He went to third on a passed ball and scored when the Fred Stockham catcher threw wildly trying to pick him off at third base. Then with two out, Tri-City's Bob Ford cranked a monumental home run to left field. It was technically an inside-the-park homer, since Fred Stockham's field doesn't have any fences around the outfield.

Tri-City made it 3-1 in the fourth when Ford doubled and scored on another two-bagger by first baseman Joe Schmecke.

After Fred Stockham tied the score with two runs in the bottom of the fourth, Tri-City took a one-run lead again in the fifth. Sykes walked, went to second base on a ground out and scored on a single by Dan Patterson.

The second game was a different story. "Tri-City doesn't like to lose two on the same day," mused Warfield. "The Triplets left little time giving Fred Stockham notice that the second game was going to be different. For one thing, the regular starting lineup was back on the field."

Tri-City scored three times in the first inning, three more in the third, three in the fourth, two in the fifth and one of the sixth.

Jodi Fenton was the winning pitcher, coming on in the second inning to relieve starter Rich Tak-majian.

In the first inning, Sykes walked, stole second and went to third when Jim Vrenick got an infield hit. With two out, Rick Buer smashed a triple, scoring Sykes and Vrenick. Stockham's centerfielder tried throw out Buer at third, but Buer was thrown wild and Buer came into score on the error.

In the third inning, Sykes led off with a double. He went to third when Vrenick reached on a fielder's choice. Dan Patterson then singled, scoring Sykes and Vrenick.

After Ford singled and stole second, Buer lofted a fly ball to deep centerfield. Patterson tried to tag up and score on the play but was gunned down at home plate. Daily then singled, scoring Ford.

"We had a little offense back in the lineup," said Warfield. "This was probably our best hitting lineup of the season."

In the fourth inning, Sykes again started things off — this time with a walk. Vrenick walked and then Patterson smashed a home run, for three more runs.

In the fifth, Daily led off by reaching base on an error by the Fred Stockham shortstop. A single by catcher Daren DePew and another by John Linhart loaded the bases. With Sykes at the plate, Warfield called for the suicide squeeze play. It worked — even better than he had hoped for.

When Sykes laid down a perfect bunt, Daily was already on top of the plate. In fact, it looked as if the two bumped in the batter's box. The Stockham catcher tried to throw out DePew going into third, but was too late. The third baseman then threw wildly trying to get Sykes at first. DePew came into score on the play.

In the sixth, Ford walked and scored on a single by Daily. "I'd rather lose a non-league game than one Monday against Edward-

Fernando was fairly fabulous

FERNANDO VALENZUELA

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor of the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — Baseball Fever had returned to St. Louis. A crowd of over 40,000 people had jammed into Busch Memorial Stadium. They were stomping and chanting and cheering. Most had come to see their favorites — the St. Louis Cardinals. But another big reason for the big crowd was the biggest thing to hit the National League since Phil Wrigley introduced day baseball.

Fernando was in town. Fernando Valenzuela, the 20-year old Mexican who burst upon the scene this season as a rookie with a 9-0 start and a 0.00 earned run average at one point, was the Los Angeles Dodgers' starting pitcher against the Redbirds Thursday night.

And on this particular night, the hometown fans got their money's worth, a fabulous performance by Valenzuela, an equally-fabulous performance by St. Louis starter Silvio Martinez, a superb relief effort by the Cards' Bruce Sutter, an inside-the-park home run by Cardinal George Hendrick.

And a 2-1 victory by the Cardinals.

Cardinal ticket refund policy

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Cardinals' standard "rain-out" policy will apply to games as they are canceled by the strike of the Major League Baseball Players' Association, the club announced today.

Persons holding tickets for such postponed games may exchange them for future games, or may ask for a refund at the Cardinal Ticket Office at Busch Memorial Stadium. They also may mail them to the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals, Box 8787, St. Louis, MO, 63102, stating their preference.

Information concerning tickets purchased through a source other than the Cardinal Ticket Office should, as a general rule, be sought from the party from whom the tickets were purchased.

Fernando gave up only three hits to the Cardinals, but the hometowners made good use of them.

Wednesday before the game, Valenzuela held a news conference — as has become common practice for the young Dodger since becoming an instant celebrity. But it was an unusual news conference. You see, Valenzuela speaks no English. He speaks through an interpreter. The questions were the same as usual: "How has your stardom affected you? Are the National League hitters just not used to your style? Have you started to lose some of your stuff?"

Valenzuela, after his fast 8-0 start, is now 9-4. Included in that string of losses is a pounding he took a week ago at the hands of the hapless Chicago Cubs, the worst team in baseball.

But he had the magic Thursday night. And the large crowd, perhaps sensing that they might have been watching the last major league baseball game of the season (because of the then-imminent players' strike), loved it.

"It was great," said one fan. "He (Valenzuela) was good, but we were better. Martinez and Sutter were every bit as good. This is what baseball's all about."

"I haven't been this excited at a Cardinal game here since the World Series in '66."

Deterding is named assistant at SIU-C

CARBONDALE — Robin Deterding, a former athletic standout at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale and Granite City South High School, has been selected as the first paid assistant coach for women's volleyball at SIU-CARBONDALE.

Deterding, a four-year letterwinner with the Salukis in softball and volleyball from 1976-80 and a volunteer assistant with the SIU-C spikers last season, will assume her coaching duties, Aug. 15, according to Dr. Charlotte West, the SIU-C women's athletics director.

West said Deterding's selection was in keeping with efforts to provide head coaches for selected sports with needed assistance.

"Robin is one of two part-time assistants who will be working with our program during the 1981-82 school year," West said. "The other part-time coach will be for gymnastics and we'll also have graduate assistants helping out in softball and with support services."

"The responsibilities of coaching," West added, "have expanded to the point where it is difficult for a single individual to function effectively anymore."

Earlier this summer, Julie Beck, a former cager and assistant coach at the University of Missouri, was hired as the first full-time assistant coach in the history of SIU-C women's basketball.

Deterding, a native of Granite City, was twice honored as SIU's Athletic of the Year during her college level in volleyball, Deterding was a three-time captain of the Salukis as well as the top hitter-setter for four years.

Debbie Hunter, SIU-C's head volleyball coach who will begin her seventh Saluki season this fall, said Deterding's coaching role would be expanded for the coming campaign.

"Robin's familiarity with our program is a plus and she will work to enhance her role as a coach," Hunter said. "She'll have definite responsibilities more so than last year when she worked only as a volunteer. She'll work closely with our players in the areas of conditioning and practice techniques, and also be involved in some recruiting," Hunter added.

A list of ten players and the alternates will be presented at the beginning of a shoot-out, the MSL's tie-breaking procedure if neither team has scored during sudden death overtime. These are the players who will take part in the shoot-out with the alternates providing for cases of injury.

There were five shootouts last year.

Several Steamers to be at camps

GRANITE CITY — Several members of the St. Louis Steamers indoor soccer team will join their head coach on the staff of this summer's Pat McBride Soccer Camp set June 21-26 at Blackburn College in Carlinville, Ill. The camp is open to boys and girls ages 8-18.

The camp's staff also includes co-director Bob Brunette, head coach of U.S. Amateur Cup champion Bush of St. Louis, Rick Benben, assistant coach at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville; Steamer's assistant coach Tim Rooney, and Blackburn head coach Kevin Kelly. Women physical education instructors will lead girls in a separate group through the same program provided for boys.

Located 60 miles northeast of St. Louis, Blackburn College features a swimming pool, grass fields and ample dormitory accommodations. Three other sessions of the camp are sold out.

Tuition is $140 and includes room, meals, camp T-shirt and insurance. All skill levels are welcome. For more information, write the camp at 731 Davenport St., St. Louis, Mo. 63125 or call (314) 631-7114.

'Flag Day' at GC Elk's Lodge

Representative from most area veterans' groups joined members of the Granite City Elk's Lodge 1063 in a special 'Flag Day' observance Sunday afternoon at the club facilities, 1329 Niedringhaus Ave.

Principal speaker at the 2 o'clock flag raising ceremony was Lieutenant Colonel Chester Tutor, commander of the Granite City Army Installation.

Presenting the colors were members of Boy Scout Troop 7 from St. Joseph Catholic Church, under the direction of Scoutmaster Robert Manzer and the Rev. Victor Chataway, pastor.

Elk's secretary W. A. Russell served as master-of-ceremonies and introduced the guest speaker.

Among the veterans' units represented were Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Disabled American Veterans and Amvets.

Plant agrees not to coerce workers

Michigan Metal Processing Corp. has been instructed to post a notice that it will not threaten employees with discharge or other reprisal because they have filed complaints with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, and that it will not interfere with, restrain, or coerce individuals in the exercise of rights guaranteed by the National Labor Relations Act.

Fred L. Crowe of St. Louis, a maintenance employee (on disability leave) and former union shop steward at the Granite City plant, had filed a charge against the company Feb. 5 and it was considered by the National Labor Relations Board.

In an unrelated matter, a written complaint by Crowe received June 3 is to be evaluated for possible investigation by the St. Louis office of the Labor Management Standards Administration.

Crowe alleges activities by Teamsters Local 525, including threats of bodily harm, collusion with a company, and attempts to thwart a scheduled union election by intimidating employees. He contends there were payments to some shop stewards to assure restraint by the stewards.

The election would have decertified the Teamsters. Crowe is said to favor affiliation with Steelworkers and said 54 employees signed petitions for a vote to eliminate the Teamsters and allow them to seek other representation.

Michigan Metal denies the charges, and Teamsters assert the complaint is related to a representation battle between two groups.

Local 525 is said to represent about 70 to 100 workers at the plant, dating back to a time shortly after the plant began operation in the 1978-79 period.

FOUR CHARGES FILED AGAINST MOTORIST

Charles W. Wilson, 30, of 1710 State St. was charged with reckless conduct, reckless driving, operating an auto with an improper muffler, and transporting an open bottle of beer as he drove north in the 1900 block of State Street at 7:15 p.m. Friday.

Police alleged he swerved near a pedestrian crossing the street at 18th Street, and then almost struck a policeman who sought to halt his car. After the officer jumped sideways and struck a door of the car with his flashlight as the auto passed, the motorist halted. He was freed on $102 bond at 11:35 p.m. Friday.

INDECENT EXPOSURE

A young man who indecently exposed himself to a local woman near an automatic laundry in the 2100 block of Amos Street at 4:40 p.m. Friday is being sought by police. Of slim build, 5-10 to six feet tall, he wore a black tee shirt and blue jeans. His sandy blond, collar-length hair was unusually full.

TRESPASSING CHARGE

Robert G. Theis, 22, of 2147 Lee Ave. was charged with criminal trespass at 2:45 a.m. Sunday on the parking lot of Keith's Lounge, 27th Street and Washington Avenue. Police, dispersing a crowd after a fight, alleged that Theis declined to leave.

BOY HURT IN 2-CAR NAMEOKI ROAD CRASH

A 16-month-old boy, Shane Rodenhouse, 4741 Warnock Ave., was injured and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center after a collision at 3:40 p.m. Thursday on Nameoki Road.

There was damage to the front of the northbound auto of Sheri Rodenhouse, 19, of the Warnock address and to the right rear of the car of Shelly Poloki, 16, of 4035 Braden Ave., who was southbound and turning left to go east on Cottage Avenue.

POWER MOWER TAKEN

A power lawnmower, painted red and with a 20-inch blade, was stolen from the back yard of the Johnnie Sams home, 2496 Illinois Ave., Thursday.

JEWELRY STOLEN

Numerous pieces of jewelry were taken from the home of Ruby Foster, Box 203, East Chain of Rocks Road. The theft was reported last week when returning home Mrs. Foster found the bedroom ransacked. Among the items taken were a pink cameo ring, white gold necklace, diamond wedding ring and a wrist watch. Value of items taken has not been determined, but will amount to several thousand dollars.

HOME BURGLARIZED

A burglar who entered a window of the home of Dave Haldeman, 2717 Idaho Ave., Thursday evening obtained two fifth-gallons of liquor and six cans of beer.

Housing authority told of 'windfall'

Every dark cloud has a silver lining. High utility bills paid by Madison County Housing Authority during 1979 and 1980 may have opened a hardship on the authority, but the hardship is about to turn into a windfall, MCHA commissioners learned Thursday.

MAN HURTS BOY, 12

A stocky built man in his late 30s is being sought for using a fist to strike a 12-year-old Grand Avenue boy in the back of the head at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues. He pushed the boy onto a concrete sidewalk, scratching the youngster's right elbow, and held him down for several minutes before fleeing in a blue van.

The authority is eligible to apply for $103,719 in reimbursements from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, since utility bills exceeded the anticipated bills for which the authority budgeted in 1979 and 1980.

Janet Haroian, executive director of MCHA, said the money is available, upon application to HUD. It is money which was not anticipated or budgeted in the 1981 appropriation ordinance, she noted. The commissioners adopted a resolution revising the budget to include the $103,719 windfall and authorizing application to HUD for the money.

Miss Haroian said the subsidy, when received, will reduce the anticipated 1981 deficit to $45,889 and careful spending may end the year without any deficit.

In other business, the commissioners tabled a resolution to update the pension plan for authority employees, pending legal review of the document in light of new HUD regulations.

Also tabled were bids for the sale of an older auto and the purchase of two new cars. The commissioners agreed not to open the bids which were received, pending further consideration.

Commissioner Thomas Jun contended Miss Haroian had no authority to seek bids on new cars without permission of the commissioners and noted that the board has not officially declared the older car surplus property.

Miss Haroian said she advertised for bids without consulting the board because the new vehicles are needed and are included in the budget, which the commissioners adopted.

Woman raped near school

She had visited at a residence Saturday evening and left it because she had to pick up her child. The other youth left, and the two started walking toward the supposed location of the telephone. The forcible assault occurred at the field. The young man then fled. He was attired in a white tee shirt and blue jeans. The woman was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Arts, humanities councils foster cultural projects

The Illinois Arts Council and the Illinois Humanities Council have established a mutual fund, the Illinois Arts-Humanities Fund (IAHF), to foster cultural projects combining the arts and humanities.

The deadline to consider such proposals is Aug. 14. The joint venture is a one year experiment and is the first time the councils have cooperated on such a project. According to Clark Mitze, IAC executive director, the project came about as a result of a growing cooperation between the two agencies, and in response to the need for a program to support those projects in which the arts and humanities converge.

A total $20,000 is available for the IAHF Program. Under the Aug. 14 deadline, applications will be considered for programs taking place between October 1, 1981, and May 31, 1982.

Awards will be announced in late September. Projects are expected to vary from discussions, readings, and lectures to publications, discussions and performances in dance, music, or theater, as well as experimental forms.

Applications will be funded according to creativity, audience potential, and the degree to which they incorporate both the arts and humanities in a unified form. The IAC is a state agency created by the Illinois General Assembly in 1965 to preserve and promote the arts in Illinois. The IHC is an independent, state-based affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

For information, Quad-City may contact Cynthia Miles, Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, IL 60602. (312) 793-6750.

GC church aids Boston meeting

The First Church of Christ in Granite City was one of many sponsors contributing to the Christian Science Board of Directors meeting in Boston last week. The church is a branch of the Boston-headquartered denomination.

Several thousand members of the church from different parts of the world attended this 86th annual meeting. There were two days of church reports and inspirational sessions.

Church officers reported a strong financial condition. Legislative acceptance into law of the right to rely on Christian Science for healing also was noted.

The Church of Christ was founded by religious leader Mary Baker Eddy in 1879, and has grown into 86 congregations around the world.

Advisory committee to aid in bus service decisions

Temporary officers for the citizen's advisory committee to the Madison County Transit District Board were elected at a meeting last week. It was the first meeting for the new group, and permanent officers are expected to be elected at the next committee meeting.

The advisory committee and the transit board will locally control those who are affected by mass transportation and the district. The committee will be asked to recommend where bus service should be. They also will inform the board of what type of service area residents desire.

The district's contract with Bi-State Development Agency is not like any other agreement the company honors, it also was noted. The contract stipulates that Bi-State must provide services which are specified by the board.

The advisory board and the committee is expected to submit a report to the Madison County Board at the end of November, informing board members of mass transit progress under the operation of the district.

Temporary officers elected at the meeting include Suzanne Blackhurst of Edwardsville and Don Alexander of Alton.

65 mile speed limit rejected

A bill that would permit Illinois motorists to drive 65 miles per hour instead of 55 has been rejected by a House committee in the legislature at Springfield last week.

The bill was turned down by the House Transportation committee on a 7 to 7 vote. Although it had passed the Senate, the legislation also needed House approval and a signature by the governor, to become law.

Illinois State Police were among major objectors to the proposal because of safety factors and the fact that the 55 mile per hour speed limit has been responsible for saving an estimated 500 lives per year. Highway department officials also protested the measure, contending it would jeopardize about $300 million in federal funds included in the state's $550 million budget of the highway department.

Rep. Frank Giglich (D-Calumet City) who sponsored the bill in the House, said he believed the bill should be given full debate on the House floor, while co-sponsor Rep. Donald E. Duester (R-Mundelein) told the committee that "Everybody passes me" when he drives the legal maximum of 55 miles per hour on highways.

The measure known as Senate Bill 996 would have repealed the 55 mile speed limit which is mandated by federal law, and replaced with a 65 miles per hour limit. Duester said the proposal is part of the Republican platform and the 65 mile limit is favored by President Ronald Reagan. He said he doubted if federal highway funds would be lost to the state if the 55 mile law was raised.

But the committee was told by Mark Bozell, of IDOT assistant legislative liaison, that indications from Washington were that federal officials would have no alternative but to immediately discontinue highway project approvals if the tax relief was passed.

Illinois' transportation system already is financially crippled and is seeking new means of taxation and financing. Downstate highway construction and maintenance.

In other action Thursday, the Senate by a slim margin approved bills to delay sales tax relief on the purchase of farm machinery and tax relief on manufacturing equipment. The delay would be for a one-year period.

The state budget partially was based on deferring sales and use tax relief on manufacturing equipment and legislators had been told that failure to delay the relief would throw the budget $200 million off the track.

Some senators contended that a delay in the tax relief would renege on promises of relief for industry and hamper efforts to revive a stagnant business climate.

Sen. John E. Groberg (R-St. Charles) said some surrounding states which have voted to reduce their tax revenue through relief measures have lost their Triple-A bond ratings and reduced their chances of borrowing money at better rates of interest.

The Senate vote was 31 to 21 with eight absentees. Sen. Kenneth E. Buzbee (D-Carbondale, discounted reports by the Bureau of the Budget that the tax would mean an additional $12 million in the budget. He spoke out against the bill on grounds that additional revenue would not be obtained because farmers would buy their machinery from out of state.

The four-cent state sales tax for farm machinery was cut in half last year. But under 1981 the last two cents will not be cut until Sept. 1982.

Fitness testing program at 'Y'

Physical fitness testing equipment and procedures of the Tri-City Area YMCA were demonstrated at Tuesday's Granite City Rotary luncheon by YMCA Executive Director David Fennire and Bill Berger of the "Y" staff.

Weight control and muscle tone are encouraged by programs relating to cardiovascular exercise, body flexibility, oxygen utilization, muscle strength and body fat composition, Berger said.

He added that the goal of physical fitness programs is to improve general health and to reduce the prevalence of heart disease, leading cause of death in the nation. Factors dealt with include life style, overweight, stress and inadequate exercise.

Past Rotary President Elmer Baker reported on his attendance at the 1981 Rotary International convention in Brazil. He also visited Peru and Argentina.

It was noted that Robert Maxwell will be installed as president and other 1981-82 officers will be installed at the annual Granite City Rotary dinner set for 6:15 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, at Sunset Hills Country Club.

How to save money on your grocery bills

Here are some important shopping tips

- 1—Check specials in food store advertisements.
- 2—Get to know the butcher and produce manager.
- 3—Find out when deliveries of perishables are made and shop on those days. Fresher foods last longer and consequently, you'll waste less.
- 4—Learn to estimate accurately the amounts of food needed. Keep a record of the amount of food you throw away in a week. It may alert you to ways you can reduce waste.
- 5—For economy and variety, use eggs, dry beans, and peanut butter in place of meat some of the time. These foods provide protein and most other nutrients that meat supplies.
- 6—Use nonfat dry milk, which is less expensive than fluid milk, at least part of the time in cooking and as a beverage.
- 7—By law, economy sizes of non-food items must save you at least 5% over other sizes of the same brand.
- 8—Try to shop as seldom as possible, preferably once a week.
- 9—Always shop with a well thought out shopping list. Try to base your list of foods on your menu for the week.
- 10—Take advantage of the special coupon offers going on at First Granite City Savings in conjunction with your local Schnuck's grocer.

Better Breathers Club enjoy picnic

Press-Record Photos by Pat Foley

The Granite City Gaspers, the nickname for the Better Breathers Club, enjoyed a friendly picnic and potluck in Wilson Park, photo at right, last week. The club includes patients at St. Elizabeth Medical Center who suffer from chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). Many are afflicted with emphysema or other non-curable respiratory disease. At left is Sylvia Stockton, a COPD sufferer, who must use the small, portable oxygen tank, at lower left, at all times. Dr. Robert Bruce is Medical Director of Pulmonary Services at SEMC and is assisted by Dr. Vinod Seth, pulmonary physician, in the department. The long-range goal of the pulmonary department is helping COPD sufferers set up a home program of therapy and to live their lives as normal as possible within their individual limits. Three nurses, a dietitian, occupational therapists, physical therapists, respiratory therapists and other staff members in the pulmonary rehabilitation department all work together to help the more than 30 patients presently receiving treatment to reach that goal. The program was instituted in December of last year and has been growing steadily since. All of the patients at the picnic agreed that the program has helped immensely in their day-to-day lives and praise the staff for their work.

Petitions for tax cut in circulation

By LISA LUTZ
of the Press-Record

"We are being lied to about taxes," president of the National Taxpayers United in Illinois Jim Tobin told Madison County residents who attended a taxpayers' meeting last week at the Nameoki Recreation Center. "This is the worst district in the state," he contended.

Tobin dominated meeting with a discussion of tax cuts. He told the residents that a state law allows for any tax to be reduced as much as 25 percent, with the exception of school taxes. A tax cut referendum may be placed on the election ballot by voter initiative. He hopes to accomplish this, and distributed petitions for taxpayers to sign at the meeting.

General corporate taxes, the highway fund and the mental health fund all could be reduced, according to Tobin.

He hopes that circulation of the petition will produce the 1,000 signatures needed in Madison County to place a tax cut referendum on the November, 1982, ballot.

Tobin had few favorable comments about Illinois Congressmen. He blamed high property taxes as one of the reasons industries are not locating in Illinois. "East St. Louis has the highest property tax in the state," he said. He also deemed local government as "inefficient." Tobin alleged that when he tried to obtain the most recent copy of the external audits in Madison County, he was refused a copy. However, past audits are available for public review.

The proposed tax cuts are small, Tobin said, having an overall impact of three percent, but would save the state millions of dollars yearly.

According to Tobin, Madison County had a surplus of $10,000,000 in the county budget. He alleged that any surplus in a county budget is illegal.

Using this figure, if all taxes were abated for 14 months, Madison County could maintain regular levels of operation, with no adverse effect, Tobin indicated. Courts have not determined what an actual surplus is, making it difficult for court action to be taken against the alleged surplus situation. Betty Young, coordinator, said she was disappointed at the meeting's attendance. "I think the people need to be more informed," Mrs. Young said. Signed petitions may be returned to Mrs. Young. Tobin said that effort to organize taxpayers in the area will be made, in an attempt to place the proposed tax cuts on the ballot in November, 1982.

Role of the individual in health care

(This is the fourteenth in a series of 15 articles exploring "The Nation's Health.")

This article, public health professor Lowell S. Levin of Yale University argues that increased self-care competence is the best hope for improving our health.

Copyright (c) 1980 by the Regents of the University of California.

Self-care is a new word that describes an age-old practice.

The care we provide to ourselves and to our families for common health problems constitutes about 75 percent of all health and medical care.

This includes most health-promoting and disease-preventing activities, 85 percent or more of care for minor illnesses and injuries, and the vast proportion of continuing care of chronic disease after a physician has been consulted.

Tooth brushing, treating minor injuries, taking aspirin for arthritis pain, self-medication for a cold, and self-injection of insulin are all examples of self-care.

Self-care practices are important in every culture and economic group, regardless of the availability and cost of professional care.

And all formal health care systems would be overwhelmed without them.

Public policymakers too often ignore these facts; they define health care as virtually synonymous with professional care.

Yet today, increasing self-care competence is the best hope for substantial improvements in health and health care quality, and for putting limits on unnecessary and costly professional care.

This does not mean that self-care is in lieu of professional care. On the contrary, professional care is supplementary to self-care.

However, the relationship is not always rational or planned, or even apparent.

The lack of awareness of self-care resources is reflected in public policies to solve the health care crisis.

Most deal with reforms of the professional system — increasing the number of providers, improving training, distributing doctors more equitably, organizing the system more efficiently, and reducing costs.

Little thought has been applied toward adapting professional resources to support the layperson as the primary care-giver who can draw on physicians to supplement self-care.

The consumer is seen as having problems and precious little else.

IMPETUS FOR SELF-CARE.

Evidence of an awakening public interest in self-care is all around us, paralleled by similar movements of consumer interest throughout the country.

In part, this interest is in response to a new understanding of the limitations of professional medical care.

We now realize, for example, that more and more physicians, nurses, hospitals, and other health care resources do not necessarily lead to improvements in health.

There also is a growing sense of the fallibility — and sometimes foibles — of professional care, which is about 50 percent effective overall and 50 percent ineffective or even dangerous.

Recent publicity about unnecessary surgery, malpractice suits, and drug dependency has done much to reveal the clay feet of our professional medical "gods."

Although most acute illness is self-limited, whether treated by physician or patient, a vast amount of professional effort is devoted to common problems.

Even a modest increase in the level of self-care could make a powerful contribution to reducing the skyrocketing costs of medical care.

It would also permit physicians to devote themselves to more serious and complex medical problems.

The high cost of professional care in dollar terms may be a positive impetus toward self-care, but the psychological debt incurred by dependency on physicians and other health care providers could be even more costly.

And it encourages doctors to oblige their patients with treatments that are incapable of altering the course of their particular disability. Such patients could more effectively treat themselves.

Certainly there are other forces pulling us toward self-care; the interest is too widespread to be solely a reaction to disappointments with professional care.

Yet today, increasing self-care competence is the best hope for substantial influence toward self-care is the striking change in the nature of our health problems.

Fifty years ago, most diseases were infectious and acute, causing people to turn to professional care for immediate short-term help.

The burden of infectious diseases has been greatly reduced by advances in sanitation and nutrition.

Now about 80 percent of diseases are chronic — for example, arthritis, diabetes, and hypertension.

Chronic diseases require a long-term commitment to self-care, often with professional help or advice.

Both the quantity and quality of chronic disease management depend on the patient's motivation and ability in coping with these problems.

Since almost half of the United States population has one or more chronic conditions, one can easily appreciate the magnitude of this self-care activity — and the public's desire for more skills in coping with these problems.

Many physicians now believe that substantial responsibility can be turned over to patients and their families in such areas as administering drugs and monitoring blood pressure.

Ironically, changes in the way professional health care is delivered provide an additional impetus for self-care.

Many medical functions previously in the domain of the physician have been distributed among a wide range of professionals with considerably less formal training.

As a result, the physicians' monopoly has been broken, and ordinary people have started to believe that with relatively modest training they, too, can learn medical techniques.

EDUCATION FOR SELF-CARE.

Growing interest in self-care is a reality that probably will not be substantially affected by the attitudes of health professionals.

Laws governing the healing arts cannot prevent the diffusion of medical knowledge. The mass media have seen to that, while at the same time they emphasize the benefits of medical care.

The public has taken self-care education into its own hands, as is reflected in the availability of at least 3,500 health and medical do-it-yourself books — as well as newsletters, conferences, and workshops in health promotion and the management of acute and chronic disease.

How much can laypeople do for themselves in health care?

Part of the answer lies in how much people want to do. The experience of several hundred self-care education programs reveals that people are interested in practical skills, not highly complicated, exotic techniques.

They want more control over their primary health care needs: first aid, treatment of minor illnesses and injuries, simple prevention measures and common practices.

For some, involvement in chronic illness management, such as diabetes mellitus, is essential.

For others, even more participation is possible.

Several studies have found that with modest training, laypeople can do such procedures as throat and urine cultures with a high degree of efficiency.

Willingness to make the educational investment is the key factor.

Organized self-care education programs are an optimal way of ensuring that people learn skills that maximize benefits and minimize liabilities.

Such programs cover aspects of health promotion, disease prevention, illness management, self-medication, and how to use the professional system.

Professional dominance prevails for some groups; other groups determine their own curricula.

Mutual aid groups are one way of developing and sharing self-care skills.

There are over 500,000 such groups in the United States and similar groups in other countries, many of them started by people who felt their needs were not being met by established institutions and professionals.

These groups involve about 15 million people who voluntarily join with peers having a common problem.

The goals are to provide mutual support and learn to cope with a chronic disease or disability, such as stuttering, alcoholism, epilepsy, amputation, or retardation.

Physicians frequently refer patients to mutual aid groups and recognize their unique contributions to supplementing professional resources.

Increasing our competence in self-care can improve our health and lead to more appropriate use of professional resources.

This means abandoning health education that blames the victim and promotes dependency on health professionals.

It means adopting programs to enhance self-care competence and empower people to take charge of their health decisions.

12 charged with violating Maryville Rd. speed limit

The Granite City Street Department has posted 25 mile-per-hour speed limit signs in the 3200 block of Maryville Road and police have begun enforcing that speed limit, the Granite City police are warning.

Twelve motorists were arrested in that block last week, all driving between 40 and 45 mph, police alleged.

They were issued speeding tickets and given dates to appear in court.

The 25 mph speed zone was imposed on Maryville Road from Emert to Terminal Avenue after a 5-year-old girl was struck by a car and was killed in the 3200 block of the speed limit is being urged by the aldermen of the ward.

New welcome signs in Pontoon Beach

The Lions Club of Pontoon Beach has asked the Pontoon Village Board for permission to install "Welcome to Pontoon Beach" signs at different Pontoon locations. The board granted the request at a meeting last week.

The $1,500 cost of the signs will be incurred by the Lions Club. They will be eight feet by 12 feet in size. Proposed locations are on Highway 111 near the Nazareth Church, south on Highway 111 near the Spartan Gas station, and on Pontoon Road, near the ADM frontage road entrance.

These locations are within the corporate limits of Pontoon Beach. The welcome signs are to be placed before June 29. The board also accepted bills for the repair of Village Hall doors, which were damaged by the April tornado. The total cost for replacing the doors and temporary close-up is $1,458.

Country jumps to No. 2

By ROBIN WELLES

HOLLYWOOD — Watch out rock 'n' roll, country music is putting on a big move.

According to a Warner Communications survey, the percentage of buyers of country music increased from 14 percent in 1977 to 19 percent in 1980.

Although still without question No. 1, rock dropped in percentage from 37 to 35 over the three years.

Country's percentage jump makes it the No. 2 favorite of American music lovers. Soul, rhythm and blues and disco are in third place, and classical is fourth.

There is no doubt that country stars have increased in number in recent years — stars like Dolly Parton, Waylon Jennings, Loretta Lynn, Ronnie Milsap, Willie Nelson, Hank Williams Jr., Juice Newton (a star just rising), Kenny Rogers, Johnny Paycheck, Merle Haggard and Dottie West, to name just a few.

And many more are on the way — like Epic's new country recording star, Charly McClain, a gorgeous gal who looks more Park Avenue than Tobacco Road.

She admits she has trouble with her image: "Some people say that I don't look country, but I am. To say that all country-loving people live on farms and wear blue jeans misrepresents an awful lot of us."

Like a number of country singers, McClain laces her songs with a contemporary sound that moves them more into the mainstream of American music. Dolly Parton is a classic case of this, her career took off like a skyrocket when she merged country and pop.

Charly McClain's latest for Epic is "Surround Me With Love" — well worth sliding on your turntable for a listen.

RICK JAMES - Street Songs (Motown-Gordy) — Ah, you have never heard punk funk? Calm yourself, the master of funky innovation lays it down super-cool on this LP. Rick wears his hair in flowing braids and writes lyrics that smoke and tingle. He's often crazily off-center, but can be eloquent, too. Try him.

THE MUSIC OF COSMOS - (RCA) — The very cerebral PBS TV series consisted of 13 hour-long broadcasts devoted to astronomy and space exploration. The series allow TV to do what it does best: present splendid visual images. The producers dipped into the classics for the musical backup, and this LP presents excerpts — some of Stravinsky's "Rite of Spring," Bach's "Partita No. 3," Vivaldi's "Four Seasons" and Shostakovich's "Symphony No. 11."

ART PEPPER - Winter Moon (Galaxy) — The great alto saxophonist has had a long battle with prison and drugs, but he seems now to be back solidly on the straight and narrow, or at least his music is. There's no one any better on the jazz scene. Backing him up on this LP are Stanley Cowell on piano, Cecil McBee on bass, and Carl Burnett on drums.

BILLY SQUIER - Don't Say No (Capitol-EMI) — Squier has been flitting around the fringes of stardom for years. He tried organizing bands for his style of power rock, but that didn't work and he struck out on a solo course a few years back. It was a good move because he's been steadily grabbing fans ever since with his sizzling guitar work.

'Hero' Culp follows a tough act

By ALAN L. GANSBERG

HOLLYWOOD — ROBERT CULP is now firmly established in "The Greatest American Hero," the ABC offering that marks his first series since "I Spy" in the '60s. Culp says that he waited so long to try the series grind again because "I Spy" was a tough act to follow. "I knew that with 'I Spy' we had broken the mold of history. It was the first time a black and a white had starred together in a continuing action-adventure series."

But sometimes the lure of the material is too great to pass up. It was friend-actor ROBERT BLAKE who told Culp about "Hero," and when he read the script he knew the part was for him. "It was an opportunity to do the first action-adventure-comedy series since 'I Spy,'" I met with the producer-creator STEPHEN CANNELL and told him I wanted the role, but only if he'd give me enough time to work on my other projects. I always seem to have 14 irons in the fire."

And that he has. Culp has a role in the upcoming "National Lampoon Goes to the Movies" and plans to write and direct for "Hero" — it's not well-known that he has been writing since he was 17 and getting paid for it since he was 26. He's also currently putting together money for a film he'll direct in Yugoslavia next spring.

Still, the big news is that Culp is supposed to be reunited with "I Spy" co-star BILL COSBY on a film project, which the actor will only describe as "a hard-boiled detective story."

P.S. Culp wrote the script.

Friends of actress CAROL LYNLEY are saying she's still in shock over the marriage of former beau DAVID FROST and LYNN FREDERICK, widow of PETER SELLERS, several months ago. Seems Carol always thought that when perennial bachelor Frost tied the knot, she'd be holding the strings.

It's really a family affair in the scoring sessions of the upcoming Walt Disney feature "Condor Man." HENRY MANCINI enlisted son CHRIS and twin daughters MONICA and FELICE as back-up singers. The film, which stars OLIVER REED and BARBARA CARRERA, is due out in August.

The toy store assistant blanching somewhat at comedian BRUCE MAHLER's request — shoes for his chicken! Bruce, who is a cast member of ABC's "Fridays" explains: "I have a regular prop on the series, my chicken Max Klitsky, and I like him to look nice on the show. When we go formal, he wears shoes which you can only get from toy stores." Inside fashion sources say Klitsky takes an extra-wide size.

CHERYL LADD saw her series "Charlie's Angels" canceled this year, but she's not liking any wounds. Hubby BRIAN RUSSELL has composed a batch of songs for her and she's putting together an album at the $1.5 million recording studios owned and operated by DARRYL DRAGON, who also produces albums for his wife, TONI TENNILLE.

TV viewers haven't seen all that much of KEVIN DOBSON since "Kojak" left the air. Surely, there have been a few TV movies, but now the former Lt. Crocker is heating up again. CBS has picked up his "Shannon" series and he's just been signed to play tough detective Mike Hammer in a TV movie based on the tough Mickey Spillane detective. Not bad for a guy who was once a railroad conductor, although actors and conductors have a lot in common — they both sell tickets.

Although "Dallas" fans thought the mystery of the summer was going to be to discover which female character was face down in the pool when the season ended, a more enterprising viewer may now speculate what is going to happen to character Jock Ewing now that JIM DAVIS has passed away. Some folks behind the scenes on the series are hinting that the producers would like to create the illusion that the character is very much alive, but on an extended business trip.

Double or nothing?

Saving money these days is difficult for most everyone. But there is a plan guaranteed to build your savings. Even for those who can't seem to ever save a cent. Buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

The amount you'd like to save is taken out automatically. When you accumulate the purchase price, you get a Bond. A $50 Bond costs only $25. Or a $100 Bond costs only $50. Whatever the amount, you'll double your money if you hold the Bond to maturity.

Remember, you can double your money for sure or put off saving and do nothing. Double or nothing.

Take stock in America.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.
